Bando Freestyler is a Freestyle Motocross game! Based off the Jet Toss concept (Toss Jet) Bando Freestyler runs on Android and iOS devices like the iPad, iPhone, iPad Mini, iPod Touch & Apple Watch. The game is designed for those who want to excel their Air 2 FPV Racing game but don't want to purchase an expensive RCX or another single purpose flight trainer. Why Bando Freestyler?

- Easy to learn
- Compatible with all Air 2 FPV Racing setups
- Create a lot of fun and added entertainment
- Easy to play and easy to set up
- No expensive equipment needed

FEATURES

Mode 1 - Freestyle A lot of variety in environments and possibilities for creating tricks! Mode 2 - Championship Come race against others and improve your times and ranking! Mode 3 - Grab & Go Practice your freestyle moves in freestyle formats!

3 EXCLUSIVE ENVIRONMENTS:

Mill Located in a quiet town, the mill is the perfect location for a bunch of old abandoned factories! It has a huge variety of combinations of buildings with plenty of natural and man-made obstacles. Docks A unique environment shaped by a single wooden crane. Perfect to practice:

- The precision throws
- The backflips and rollovers

Flop_Park This is a freestyle playground where you can practice your tricks on all sorts of old and new playground equipment. How To Set Up The Toss Jet concept is not about having more than one way of doing things. The fact that the setup/learning process is so easy is what makes it so versatile for all sorts of pilots. The BFTG is a fun little toss jet trainer that is designed to be inexpensive but has a lot of fun to play with. The reason is that there are not too many differences between the various sizes; however, the longer the arm, the easier it is to toss the jet higher in the air. The BFTG comes with a small version of a hard plastic, base (known as the body) that can be attached to the back of most of the standard tubing. It has a hole in the center that the arm is inserted through. The arm is then wrapped around the body and secured by two screws. The reason I recommend this is that it works great. However, the reason I

System Requirements For Z-Company:

Minimum requirements are that you have a PC (or a Mac) with an Intel i3 processor or better (or better still, a Quad Core i7, but that's usually overkill for all but the most demanding projects). If you have the latest Intel 3D Acceleration/Intel Graphics Driver for your operating system, you should have no problem running this. If your system doesn't have this, make sure you have a recent driver from your graphics manufacturer. Any Windows XP or Windows 7 operating system (or better) should be fine. Either Windows Vista, Windows
